

John 3:16

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.”

Presenting God’s Story & Our Story – From Armand Ulbrich’s, Presenting the Gospel

Part One:

What God Has Done That We May Be His

- A. God came into this world for us in the person of His Son, Jesus Christ.
- B. Jesus lived a holy life for us.
- C. Jesus suffered and died for us.
- D. Jesus rose from the dead for us.

Concluding statement: Because of what Jesus has done for us, we can be sure of forgiveness and an eternal relationship with God.

Part Two:

Why It Was Necessary

- A. Human nature is corrupt.
- B. We are in a wrong relationship with God.
- C. We commit all kinds of evil.
- D. We fall short of God’s demands.

Concluding statement:

Because of our corruption and committing all kinds of evil, we are under the condemnation of God.

- * Being holy, God cannot have a relationship with us because of our corruption and committing all kinds of evil.
- * Being just, God must condemn because of our sinful corruption.
- * There is absolutely nothing we can do about our sinful corruption to be reconciled to God.

Transition: How can we escape from God’s certain judgment? Only God can enable us to escape His certain judgment through what He has done for us.

Part Three:

How God Enables Us To Become His- Through Faith

- A. Faith is recognizing our sinfulness and need for forgiveness.
- B. Faith is looking to Jesus Christ for forgiveness.
- C. Faith is accepting God’s forgiveness.
- D. Faith is trusting in Jesus Christ alone.

Concluding Statement: All this is the work of the Holy Spirit. He is the one who enables us to recognize our sinfulness and sins, see Jesus as our Savior, accept His forgiveness, and put our trust in Him.

Conclusion: The Christian life is a life of joyful, thankful response to what God had done for us.
